DECLARATION

I am aware that the post for which I am applying is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore most convictions, cautions and bind-overs, including those regarded as 'spent' must be declared. I confirm that I have not been disqualified from working with children; I am not named on DfE List 99 or the Protection of Children Act List and I am not subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body (eg the Teaching Agency).

Have you been convicted by the courts of any criminal offence? Yes No

Is there any relevant court action pending against you? Yes No

Have you ever received a caution, reprimand or final warning from the police? Yes No

If the answer to any of the above is 'Yes', please supply details, on the 'Voluntary Disclosure' form to be found at the School website.

The amendments to the exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers, and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at the Disclosure and Barring website.

DATA PROTECTION POLICY – RECRUITMENT

The recruitment process of Lanesborough Preparatory School relies on the receipt of your application form, curriculum vitae, references and normally attendance at interview(s).

Any information you provide will be retained in paper form and may be stored and processed electronically for monitoring of the recruitment process and in case we have future vacancies that may be of interest to you. Information will not be disclosed to third parties with the exception of your referees from whom we may ask an opinion on any matter we consider relevant to your application.

If you are appointed, any information you have provided in writing, notes of interviews held and copies of any references, testimonials, certificates or other similar documents may be held on your employee file and will form part of the contract between yourself and the school. Such information may be stored and processed in electronic form. Information will not be disclosed to third parties except

- To your referees from whom we may ask an opinion on any matter we consider relevant to your application.
- The disclosure of information as a referee if you authorise us to provide a reference.
- Provision of information as required by the DfE, pensions agency, tax and social services offices.
- Provision of information to comply with any other legal requirement or on order from a Court.
- To the school's professional advisors, in confidence, in their capacity as agents for the school.
- To any service agency (such as payroll processing organisations) providing services on behalf of the school and with which there is a client confidentiality agreement protecting your information.

I apply for employment by Lanesborough Preparatory School and I acknowledge and accept the Data Protection Policy associated with the recruitment process of Lanesborough School.
